

the seminarian 1970

Capital Bible Seminary seeks to commit to men the deeper truths of the Word of God and related subjects so that they will be prepared to communicate them to others. This encompasses several areas:

INVOLVING the student in a thorough quest for knowledge which will both help and challenge him in his present and future ministries;

INITIATING study habits on a mature, graduate level so that these become a vital part of his life;

INSTILLING spiritual values in the life of the student through classroom and personal dialogue;

INTENSIFYING the areas of study begun on an undergraduate level for the Bible college graduate and offering a modified course to the student with a liberal arts degree so that he also may profit from such an intensified approach to seminary studies.

faculty and staff

Mr. George A. Miles, B.A , B.S.C.E.

President of the Washington Bible College and its Graduate Division the Capital Bible Seminary. The vision and influence of President Miles has made C.B.S. what it is today.

Dr. John H. Mulholland, B.A., Th.M., Th.D.

Dean of the Capital Bible Seminary. Formerly in charge of the Theology Department of the Washington Bible College. Dr. Mulholland has been involved in the Seminary since its inception in 1958. He now serves as Dean and Professor of the Theology Department.

Homer Heater, B.D., M.A.

While working on his Doctorate at Catholic University, Mr. Heater is the Registrar and Professor of Semitic Languages and Old Testament Literature Department.

Rev. A. W. Jackson, B.A., B.S.T.

A well known pastor in the area, Rev. Jackson is a part time instructor in the areas of Christian Life and Ethics and Pastoral Studies.

Marshall Southard B.A., Th.M.

Mr. Southard's vast experience in the Congo and Haiti has amply prepared him to serve presently as the Instructor of Missions Theory and Practice.

featured alumnus

Pastor Herbert "Buddy" Arnold is an alumnus who has served the Lord with distinction for the past several years. He is a graduate of the Washington Bible College (1958) where he served as instructor, and Christian Service Director while attending Capital Bible Seminary from which he was graduated in 1965.

As pastor of the Temple Baptist Church in Fredericksburg, Virginia, Mr. Arnold has a radio ministry, a thriving missionary program, a summer camping program and a musical ministry including a choir which has an outreach to other churches, and a teaching ministry in the Fredericksburg Bible Institute.

Mr. Arnold will be teaching Homiletics in the Seminary next year. Praise belongs to God for the ministry accomplished through this alumnus.
